

Speech No. 2 Independence Day Speech for Primary Class Students.

Good day, distinguished guests, able principals, distinguished teachers, and my dear fellow students, congratulations on your freedom. Dear Sir, I am Anita from Class 1. It is an honor for me to say a few words of love to my beloved country on the occasion of my 73rd Independence Day. Today, everyone in our country is happy and is celebrating Independence Day with great love for the country.

Freedom is an honor and a great gift. Thanks to the great sacrifices of our leaders, we are a free and independent nation of the world.

Dear Sir, Today is a historic day in the history of India. This day marks the beginning of an independent and progressive India. We got freedom from British gambling. Slavery is a curse. History shows how terrible the conditions of our beloved land were. Our great ancestors suffered at the hands of the British. Thanks to our leaders, Mahatma Gandhi, Nehru, Subhash Chandra, and others from whom we are free today.

Dear Sir, We have to work hard according to the teachings of our great founders. We have to keep our promises to our land. The destiny of our great land is in the hands of our youth. No doubt, we have made progress in science, literature, medicine, astronomy, military, arts, and architecture, but there are still many goals to be achieved.

Dear comrades, let us unite and work hard. We are a powerful nation without distinction of color, creed, or caste. Let's strengthen our country. With unity and discipline, the day is not far when we will be the most powerful nation in the world.

Independence Day Speech For Students in English Short

Good day, Honourable Guests, worthy Principal, respected teachers, and my dear fellow students, Happy Independence Day to all. Honorable Sir, I am Geeta. It is an honor for me to present a short speech on Independence day with you. Today is a historic day in the history of our country.

On this day 15th August 1947 we got independence from the British. This day reminds us of our true worth and importance as a freedom-loving brave nation. Respected Sir, The freedom that we are enjoying today, is the result of decades-long struggles made by our forefathers and our great leaders.

We are extremely thankful to Netaji Gandhiji, Nehru Lal, and all other great leaders and freedom fighters for their sacrifices for India. Dear Sir, we are an independent, progressive and powerful country of the world today. We have the world's largest democracy. Our people are brave and bold. Our youth are leaders of IT and engineering around the world today.

We have made progress in science, astronomy, agriculture, medicine, arts, and architecture. Our soldiers are brave and bold. Thanks to them we are enjoying freedom today.

Our enemies fear us and the world respects us. Respected fellow students, what we have got today is not enough. There are still a lot of problems and issues that we have to solve.

We have to fight against poverty, overpopulation, illiteracy, and youth unemployment. We have to spread awareness and knowledge to every corner of our country.

Dear brothers and sisters, on this day we have to make a promise with our land that we will defend the honor and integrity of our land in every situation. We will work hard to bring success in every field. We have to make India strong among all nations.

Let's unite and work hard for our goals. With unity, we will surely achieve our goals. The day is not far when India will be the most powerful country in the world.

Independence Day Speech for High School Students

Good morning all, honorable Guests, worthy Principals, respected teachers, and fellow students happy Independence day to all of you.

Honorable all, as you know we all have gathered here to celebrate the 73rd independence day of India. The day that 1947 started a new chapter in the history of the entire subcontinent. We got freedom from foreign yokes.

But, this day, as you know, has a very history behind it. There are countless struggles, priceless sacrifices, and efforts of our great leaders. Thanks to that, India is a powerful, strong, and free country in the world.

Respected Sir, Independence can never be had charity. It is not a gift. We salute those warriors, leaders, and freedom fighters of ours who did a remarkable job to give us a free and beloved country.

History is full of evidence of the struggles and sacrifices of our leaders like Mahatma Gandhi G, Pandit Nehru Lal, ChanChanChandra, and ds of freedom lovers.

Mahatma Gandhi G was the proponent of peace and nonviolence. He led the freedom struggle in very critical times. He faced hardships and suffered at the hands of the British but he never gave up. It was his charming personality that led millions of Indian people behind him, under his banner. He is one of the greatest leaders in the world.

Respected Sir, our beloved country India has every beautiful thing in this world. We have an anturetculturemed force that is very brave and bold. They never hesitate to sacrifice their lives for this land, our economy is very strong.

We are a very respected and Nuclear power country. Our youths are leading the world in technology, engineering, and medicine.

We are the world's largest democracy with free and happy people. We have everything in this beloved land. Respected fellows, as you know this day comes every year to remind us of our promises to this land. It is indeed, we have got freedom from the foreign yokes but still there remains a lot to be done. We have to fight against all the social and economic issues at present.

We have to fight against poverty, illiteracy, youth unemployment, and overpopulation. We have to stand against ignorance and spread education in every corner of our country. Respected fellows there lie a huge responsibility upon our shoulders. We have to work day and night for the progress and welfare of our country. Soon, the day is not far when we will be the world's most powerful country.

Independence Day Speech For Principal & Teachers

Respected all, Honorable Guest, worthy principal, respected teachers, and my dear fellow students good morning and happy independence day. Respected sir, It is a matter of great pride for me to stand here in front of you to say my words of thankfulness and gratitude on independence day. I am thankful to all of you.

And we all are indebted to our leaders who have made this happen for us. This is true because of them that we are here, a free and independent nation.

Honorable Sir, Independence is a great gift of God. It is indeed a blessing of our Lord. We are an independent, fairly respected, and progressive nation of this world. We are advanced in technology, military, arts, and architecture. We have an advanced agriculture system. We are self-sufficient in many resources.

Today we play an important role in all important international affairs around the world. Our youth are leading the world in technology and engineering. In fact, from the day of independence to this day, we have developed much in every sphere of life.

Honorable sir, we must admit that the country we are enjoying today, had been freed without the sacrifices of our leaders. India could never have progressed had it been still under the yokes of slavery. Salute to those leaders who understood the worth and importance of a freed India under free and fresh air.

How can we pay my regards to our leader and our hero Mahatma Gandhi? He was a wise, intelligent, and kind personality. He is the ideal leader of millions of people across the world too.

The other great leaders Bal Gangadhar Tilak, Lala Lajpat Rai, Bhagat Singh, Khudi Ram Bose, and Chandra Sekhar Azad did a wonderful job in uniting people under the single banner of an Independent and free India. Thanks to the efforts and sacrifices of these leaders we are free at this moment.

Dear friends, it is important to know the worth and value of independence before enjoying its fruits. History is an open book. It tells us the conditions of slave nations. Slavery is a heinous curse. It sucks out the blood and the energy of a nation.

Under the British, the condition of our nation was not better than this. History tells us the horrific miseries and agonies our great leaders suffered at the hands of the British. Even today, when we look around the world. we can observe the conditions of slave nations around.

Honorable sir, today is a historic day in India's history. This day reminds us of our true worth and value as a nation. On this day, we have to make our commitments to serve our countrymen. There are a lot of challenges and hardships still in our way. Our independence needs more sacrifices and struggles to fulfill the dreams of a powerful and popular India.

Dear friends, let's make commitments afresh, let's unite and work hard, let's turn into such a sublime and super-entity to spoil every conspiracy against our nation. Let's forget the differences of color, creed, and cast and stand for the broader aims of progress, prosperity, peace, and justice throughout our land.

“Jai Hind, Jai Bharat”

Independence Day Speech in English 2020

Good Morning all, Honorable Principal, worthy teachers, my dear students, happy Independence day to all of you today. Respected sir, As we all know we are gathered here to celebrate the 73rd Independence Day of our beloved India.

Today, everyone from one part of our country to another part is chanting slogans of “Jai Bharat Mata” with great spirit and energy. It is indeed the spirit of freedom and love for the land. But, we all know, this freedom is hard-earned.

There are decades of sacrifices and struggles behind all of that. The land on which we breathe is thanks to the struggles of our great men in the lead of well-known figures. i.e. Gandhi ji, Nehru Lal, Sabash Chandra, and others.

Respected sir, Freedom is a gift. It is the gift of sacrifices, sleepless nights, brutal tortures, and struggles done by our forefathers. History is an open chapter. It tells us about the sacrifices of our forefathers for this land.

This freedom owes itself to the struggles of Bapu Mahatma Gandhi Ji. He stood like a rock for the rights of people. He was imprisoned several times. He faced many hardships yet he withstood. This freedom owes itself to our great leader Pandit Nehru Lal. He never compromised the rights of people. He sacrificed each and everything and supported the cause of independence.

And this independence owes itself much to the sacrifices of our other leaders as Bal Gangadhar Tilak, Lala Lajpat Ray, Bhagat Singh, Khudi Ram Bose, and Chandra Sekhar Azad.

Respected friends. In British India, we all were under chains. Our rights were compromised. We felt suffocated. Our social, political, and economic conditions were very bad. And in the end, it was not an honor for Indians to live under slavery of foreign forces. Slavery is a curse. You can see it around the world. What is the situation of those nations that are still slaves today? We should be more than thankful to our leaders who had realized it.

Respected sir, we all are gathered here today not only to chant slogans and do formality. Our land needs us more than anything. We have to fulfill the promises that we have been doing with our land. No doubt, we are a free land. But this free land is surrounded by a host of problems. We are facing many issues today. Like the issue of overpopulation, youth unemployment, poverty, underdevelopment of rural areas, and many more.

Apart from all of these problems, our country has many good things to offer. We are a nuclear power country. We have a large and brave army. Our borders are protected. And our enemies fear us. We are the world's largest democracy of free and happy people. We are politically powerful, economically strong, and militarily advanced.

Being the youth, we are the future of our nation for tomorrow. We need to look at the problems and find the solution immediately. We have to be united. As our great leader Nita Ji Gandhi Ji said, "The future depends on what we do in the present." Therefore, we have to utilize our today for a better tomorrow.

Dear Friends, In unity there, lies strength. Therefore, we have to be united. We have to make the commitments today that we shall never allow any harm to our land. We have to make every effort to make our country powerful and honorable in the world. Let's unite, let's work hard and tell our every friend and foe alike. We are friends with friends and we are harsh with enemies.

"Jai Hind, Jai Bharat"
